

English Writing

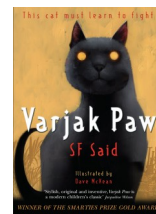

The Lion and The Baker by the Sea by Paula White and Shackleton's Journey by William Grill

We will explore: Dialogue, diary entry, Job applications, advertisements, re-telling (oral dictation), mini-autobiography and act file.

English Reading

We will explore Varjak Paw by S.F. Said

We will develop inference and prediction skills, exploring character growth and relationships, identifying key themes of bravery and belonging, summarising key events, and understanding the impact of setting on mood and tension.

Science

Electricity and Data Collection

In science, Year 4 will Identifying common appliances that use electricity, constructing and drawing series circuits, troubleshooting circuit issues, distinguishing between conductors and insulators, and investigating conductivity within a circuit.

Religious Education

World Faith—Hinduism: What does it mean to be a Hindu?

Week 1: What does it mean for a Hindu to live with a belief in dharma and karma?

Week 2: What does it mean to be born into a Hindu family?

Week 3: What does it mean for a Hindu to live with a belief in ahimsa?

Week 4: What does it mean to have a Hindu wedding?

Week 5: What does it mean to die as a Hindu?

Mathematics

Decimals

Understanding place value by making a whole with tenths and hundredths, partitioning and flexibly partitioning decimals, comparing and ordering decimals, rounding to the nearest whole number, and representing halves and quarters as decimals.

Money

Writing money using decimals, converting between pounds and pence, comparing amounts, estimating costs, calculating with money, and solving real-world money problems.

Music

Guitars: Mastering Skills Painting with Sound

Geography

London and South East England

Exploring the South East of England by identifying its counties and key cities, including London, Canterbury, Brighton, and Dover; understanding human and physical characteristics, topographical features, and land-use patterns; and assessing changes over time.

History

The Stuarts

Exploring James I and the Union of the Crowns, the causes and consequences of the Gunpowder Plot, the reign of Charles I, the key events of the English Civil War, Oliver Cromwell and the Commonwealth, and the restoration of Charles II.

French

What is the weather?

Pupils will learn to confidently describe different weather conditions and use simple phrases to talk about the weather in various seasons. They will practise listening and speaking skills through songs, games, and role-play activities, building their vocabulary and pronunciation.

Art

Monuments of Ancient Rome

Children will be taught to develop their techniques, including their control and their use of materials, with creativity, experimentation and an increasing awareness of different kinds of art, craft and design.

Design and Technology

Cook - Ratatouille and Couscous

As part of their work with food, pupils should be taught how to cook and apply the principles of nutrition and healthy eating. Instilling a love of cooking in pupils will also open a door to one of the great expressions of human creativity.

P.E.

Tuesday: Cricket

Friday: Yoga

Computing

Photo Editing

Pupils learn how to edit digital images and understand the effects of their changes. They will also evaluate their editing choices.

PSHE

How can our choices make a difference to others and the environment?

Trips and Visits

Tower of London: Thursday 8th May 2025